Year 3 Camp

14th February 2018

Dear Year 3 Parents,

This year's year 3 camp to Wombat Corner has been booked for the 21st, 22nd and 23rd of March. Year 3 children from 3H, 3R and 3L are invited to attend and I'm sure many of them are excited at the prospect of their first school camp.

Wombat Corner is a holiday camp situated in the Dandenong ranges less than 50 kilometres from school. The camp is uniquely located alongside Emerald Lake and adjoins the beautiful state forest, thus combining the benefits of both bush and lake environments. Our adventure will also include a trip on the famous Puffing Billy steam train.

At this stage we estimate the cost of the camp, including Puffing Billy, an evening Dreamtime session with an aboriginal elder and bus fares, to be around $240.00 per child. However, the number of children attending the camp will determine the final cost.

We look forward to all our children participating in this memorable experience and ask you to return the form below, together with a $50 deposit (to the class teacher), which will enable final arrangements to be made.

Yours Sincerely, Year 3 teachers, Cath Higgins, Lee Jellis and Kate Raynor
